UNEC's establishment as a registered Trust aims to preserve the identity, heritage, and aspirations of the Nubi people through coordinated efforts that blend cultural preservation, socio-economic advancement, and inclusive representation. UNEC is to, among others, serve the following objectives

1. Preserve and promote the Nubi language and culture through educational programs, language workshops, cultural events, and media campaigns.

- UNEC will also ensure the continued transmission of Nubi cultural practices, oral traditions, and language to future generations.
2. Support socio-economic and educational development in form of initiatives that provide resources, training, and empowerment in education, health, and economic sectors to uplift the Nubi society across Uganda.
 3. Advocate for rights and representation as the unified voice of the Nubi people. UNEC will advocate for equal rights, political participation, and protection of Nubi cultural heritage at both local national levels and international levels.
 4. Strengthen intergenerational connections through mentorship, community dialogues, and cultural exchange programs, UNEC will bridge the gap between youth and elders, ensuring the timeless transmission of Nubi values, wisdom, and traditions.

The Uganda Nubi Elders Council calls upon all Nubi individuals and communities, both within Uganda and beyond, to embrace this milestone achievement, rally behind the Council, and actively participate in shaping the future of the Nubi Society.

UNEC leadership pledges, as evidenced so far, to conduct community affairs transparently, inclusively, and in the best interest of all, without any exception.

The Council extends heartfelt appreciation to all members of the community who contributed immensely to this success, particularly:

1. Our ever-present Patron, Right Honourable Gen. (Rtd) Dr (Honoris causa) Moses Ali, for his steadfast support, counsel and guidance.
2. UNEC's legal team, ably led by Counsel Amar Ali, for their professional dedication.
3. Members of the Nubi Think Tank and all other committed foot soldiers whose tireless efforts made this dream a reality.

This registration signifies not just a legal milestone, but a spiritual and cultural awakening for the Nubi people of Uganda. Let us join hands to preserve our heritage, empower our community, and build a stronger, united future. This is the time. This is a new dawn for the Nubi Society.
